COCKLE FISHERY FLEXIBLE PERMIT BYELAW (summary only, for full byelaw see website: www.kentandessex-ifca.gov.uk)

No person shall harvest or disturb cockles other than in accordance with a category one permit or a category two permit.

No person shall harvest cockles using a relevant fishing vessel which exceeds 14 metres in overall length or exceeds 5 metres in overall width.

No more than one permit will be issued per relevant fishing vessel.

Permits are not transferable between the permit holder and another person or between the named vessel and another vessel

A person applying for a category one permit or a category two permit may nominate up to two persons as their representatives ("nominated representatives"), provided that a person nominated is not:

- (a) A category one permit holder;
- (b) A category two permit holder; or
- (c) Already nominated as a representative on a category one permit or a category two permit.

Permits issued by the Authority shall be valid from the date of issue until the 31 December of that year and are issued on the condition that the holder of the permit shall complete and return to the Authority as required a record of daily catch, actual fishing time and fishing area. Such information shall be submitted on a form provided by the Authority.

Applications for a permit under this byelaw are to be made in such form as the Authority shall determine.

DATA PROTECTION
